MOTHER MARY LOUIS DIES IN CONVENT AT 80

Superior General of Sisters of St.

Joseph, With Mother House
at Brentwood, L. I.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES. BRENTWOOD, L. I., May 23.—The Rev. Mother Mary Louis Grummey, superior general of the Sisters of St. Joseph, died yesterday, after month's illness, at the mother house of St. Joseph's Convent here. Right Rev. Thomas E. Molloy. Bishop of the Brooklyn Diocese, will be the celebrant of a requiem mass on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the convent chapel. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery here. A special children's requiem mass will be celebrated at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in the chapel.

Mother Mary Louis was born in Brooklyn eighty years ago and became a pupil at St. Joseph's Academy, Flushing, at an early age. She showed marked musical ability. She entered the novitiate shortly after graduation.

In 1892 she was elected superior general of the community, which then numbered about 300 sisters, and was placed in charge of three institutions, twenty-four parochial schools and three high schools. Under her able guidance the growth and progress of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was phenomenal.

Under her superiorship the congregation increased to 1,100 members. who have in their care St. Joseph's College, several high schools, two hospitals, three orphan homes and more than sixty homes and schools, including one in Porto Rico. The novitiate was transferred from Flushing to Brentwood during her superiorship.
